LETTER FROM NEW YORK

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT

New York Sept [illegible] 1865

THE JAPANESE STEAM CORVETTE

[illegible] built in this city by Westervelt & Son and which has been detained for a long time for fear she would turn up a rebel privateer, sailed from this port last week for Yokohama via Cape de Verd, Cape of Good Hope Java and Hong Kong. Capt Franklin Hallett goes out in command of her and will deliver the vessel to the Japanese authorities through the American Minister.

LARGE BEQUESTS

The will of Mary Barr just admitted to probate distributes $30[illegible] among various religious and benevolent [illegible] and institutions, and then bequeaths [illegible] shares among seven of those institutions [illegible] of the residuary estate.

THE SHIP MARGARET EVANS

A well known packet ship between New York and London, after making [illegible] two successful voyages without accident, was quietly sunk at her dock the other day by being run into by a large steamer. She will probably be raised and repaired at a cost of $25 000

OUR THEATRES

Are about beginning their fall campaign. Wallack's has added to its stock company that fine actor [illegible] Its comport who is probably tired of traveling and starring it throughout the country and ready to settle down to a quiet life. Rose Eytinge is also a new member of the company. Mrs. Wood has [illegible] her Olympic and will in a few weeks bring out a new piece with a Miss Lucy Rushton a blonde beauty from London, as its leading feature.

THE STEAMERS FOR THE CHINA TRADE

The new side wheel steamship [illegible] Star built for the China trade, and the largest and handsomest vessel yet constructed by our ship builders for service in these waters is about ready to sail. She is 28[illegible] feet long 40 feet 8 in her beam and is 2 [illegible] tons burthen, old measurement. The arrival of the [illegible] Star in Chinese waters will swell the number of first class steamships that have left this port for the Celestial Empire to the number of thirty, and this within a few years.

TRADE WITH THE SOUTH

Continues very active. Every steamer hence for New Orleans, Norfolk Savannah Charleston, &c., has a full cargo of dry goods groceries, medicines provisions and other merchandise. The bulk of these shipments however, it is thought will be over in a week or two. The retail trade is as a general thing rather slow, but greater activity is anticipated as the season advances.

THE LOSS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

Official figures give the losses of the Army of the Potomac from the 4th of January, when it crossed the Rapidan under the direction of Lieutenant General Grant until the 1st of November [illegible] being at 796 officers and 9 796 enlisted men killed 2,796 officers and [illegible] enlisted men wounded, and 775 officers and 23,082 enlisted men missing a grand total of 88,387 men. The losses in the Wilderness battles reached 29,410 in those at Spottsylvania 10,380, and in that of Cold Harbor 13 153 men. Against a total of missing of 24 000 the Army of the Potomac has a set-off of [illegible] 170 prisoners captured from the enemy.

The casualties of General Sherman's Army in the Atlanta campaign amounted to 5,284 killed 26 129 wounded and 5 786 missing, or a total of 37 199. There were captured by this army in the campaign allied to 12 983 prisoners and deserters of whom about 2[illegible] per cent came voluntarily into our lines.

THE REDEMPTION OF INTERIOR NATIONAL BANK CURRENCY

The Clearing House at a meeting the other day unanimously declared that the scheme for running the interior National Banks upon their circulation was not properly a Clearing-House matter. The assembly then resolved itself into a meeting of bank officers and a motion was made to lay the Assorting House project on the table until banks not in the Clearing House could be consulted in the matter. A good deal of excitement was shown, and it is evident that no forced redemption scheme can be made binding upon banks in the Clearing House. After an excited debate the Bank Committee adjourned until Tuesday next without coming to any decision in regard to the redemption of the country circulation.

CRUELTY ON SHIPBOARD

Captain Anderson, of the emigrant ship Villafranca, was before one of the courts the other day charged with endeavoring to starve the passengers, and in the Wirtz style knocking down and kicking one of the passengers for complaining of a short allowance of rations. Several women also complained that there "was no protection for females on board." The Captain said it was "all a lie," and no decision has yet been reached. Whether this case be true or false, it is an undoubted fact that there is too much cause for complaints of this kind on board our emigrant ships and quite time that stringent laws were made and enforced for the protection of emigrants.

A LARGER SQUADRON FOR THE PACIFIC

It appears that the magnificent steamship Vanderbilt is to go to the Pacific. Pity she hadn't been there in time to nip the Shenandoah in her lawless operations. The great speed of the Vanderbilt would have made it an easy affair. Commodore John Rodgers the hero of the Weehawken and Atlanta fight will hoist his flag on the Vanderbilt and convey round the Horn the iron-clads destined for the Pacific coast.

THE TREASURER OF OHIO

Is a defaulter to the amount of $86,000. He has been arrested by order of the Governor and his trial will soon come off. His name is Geo Volney Dorsey. Several persons have declined to accept the post thus made vacant and the State Treasury is closed until a successor to Mr Dorsey can be secured. The Ohio Treasury seems a ticklish position to hold, as this is not the first time trouble of the same sort has occurred there.

NEW HOTELS

Our hotels are doing such a splendid business that extra inducements are offered to build and keep new ones. The saying "He knows how to keep a hotel" seems well applied here for it is related on good authority that the Fifth Avenue has cleared $175 000 in the past twelve months the Metropolitan $140,000 the St. Nicholas 150 000 the Astor 125 000 and others in the same proportion. Two immense establishments are to be erected next season each larger than the Fifth Avenue one near the corner of Broadway and Twenty fifth streets and the other on Fifth Avenue near Fourteenth street. A. P. Stewart the great dry goods man is to be interested in one, and the Lelands of the Metropolitan in the other.

THE CABINET

A Washington letter writer asserts that the time is not distant when there will be an entire reconstruction of the Cabinet and that Messrs Stanton Harlan and Speed and Judge Advocate Holt are to go out. I don't believe the writer knows anything about the matter but give his opinion for what it is worth.

JUDGE HOLT

Has issued a reply to Montgomery Blair's speech declaring himself guiltless of the charge made against him, and his conviction that the gentlemen implicated with him are alike innocent. He calls on Mr. Blair for the proof for the American people can hardly be expected to pass judgment against public men long tried and honored in the National service solely on his (Blair's) unsupported declaration. The war of words bids fair to be a long and urgent one.

[illegible] AGAIN

The irrepressible Henry S. Foote, who springs up again, like a jack in the box every time cruel Fortune pushes him down, appears now at Nashville. In a letter to the Nashville Dispatch he makes the following statements after denying that the President imposed any terms on his release:

After struggling in Richmond for three years to prevent the [illegible] and enforcement of conscription, confiscation, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the prosecution and punishment of conservative and upright citizens for the [illegible] of loyal sentiments after resisting to the full extent of my ability, the gross mismanagement of Confederate [illegible] both military and civil up to the period when after the displacement of General Joseph E. Johnston from the command of the Army of Tennessee and the deliberate opening of the whole South to the invading army of Gen Sherman, after foreseeing and formally predicting the downfall of Savannah Charleston, Columbia, Wilmington and Richmond before the first of last May, it is known to all that I labored in every way for peace in order to avoid the very state of things which the South is now experiencing. Then I knew and I am now prepared to establish that President Lincoln was ready to grant peace to the South on the basis of universal amnesty gradual emancipation and the payment of $400 000 000 to the slaveholding population of the South. In point of fact President Lincoln offered these generous terms to the three commissioners whom he met in the Hampton Roads last winter but their hands were so unwisely tied up by instructions from President Davis that it was not in their power to accede thereto. They were not even allowed to report the proposition of Mr Lincoln to the Confederate Congress.

NAVAL MATTERS

There are at present six thousand men actively employed in the navy yard. The work on the sloops Java, Mahdong, Quinebaugh and Ontario—all of them on the stocks—is being pushed with proper expedition. The Java and Ontario are 3 417 tons measurement and are 315 feet long. The sloop of war Brooklyn is nearly ready for sea as is the sloop Monongahela. The monitor Kalamazoo—of the same class as the Agamenticus, Monadnock, Tonawanda and Miantonomah—is receiving her oak planking and is in a fair state of advancement.

The double turreted monitor Tonawanda, now being completed at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia will probably turn out a total failure. It is alleged that she has not yet got her full armament coal or stores on board, and yet her hull is nearly submerged.

The following is the abstract from the new navy regulations issued on the 1st inst.

After the 1st of June, 1866 neither ensigns masters nor lieutenants will be promoted to the next higher grades respectively until they have established, to the satisfaction of a board of examining officers, or other duly appointed board, that they possess a sufficient knowledge of the French or Spanish languages to speak the same with a fair degree of fluency.

MISCELLANEOUS

Rev M. J. Cramer, a chaplain in the army, writes from Richmond to the Western Christian Advocate that he met Dr. Edwards, of the Methodist Church South, who in response to a suggestion that the chaplain should preach in the church, said "This cannot be done. The chasm between us and the Church North is too great to be thus easily bridged over. I fully and sacredly believe in the divinity of slavery, and if I were to be called to appear before my judge, Jesus Christ, the next hour, I would without any mental reservation whatever, preach up the divinity of slavery. It has divine sanction in the Holy Scriptures."

The investigation in the charge of fraud preferred against Charles J. Anthony, a New York broker in connection with the Mooseland Gold Mining Company, of Nova Scotia, has resulted in a dismissal of the complaint, which charged Anthony with having defrauded Governor Gilmore, of New Hampshire, by inducing the latter's agent to invest fifteen thousand dollars in the stock of the Mooseland Company, which it is now alleged is worthless.

The contract for completing the entire line of railway from the station of the Main Central Railroad in Bangor, to the Suspension Bridge at St. John City, was finally closed on Friday last, with Messrs George H. Pierce and Albert Blaisdell, contractors.

It has been decided to call Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia, to the witness stand in the Wirz trial to prove the complicity of Jeff. Davis and his satellites in the outrageous cruelties and barbarities perpetrated at Andersonville.

Information has been received of the seizure at Buffalo of the Argo, late a New York pilot boat, for smuggling goods from Canada into the United States. Government is determined to suppress this traffic, and many seizures have recently been made.

Two ex rebel generals and one preacher, all from Mississippi, called on General Howard at the Freedmen's Bureau to express their gratification at the overthrow of slavery, and desire to have the freedmen of the South educated. Such a conversion is marvelous, but General Howard thinks it sincere, and received them cordially.

Examinations are being made at various custom houses throughout the United States with a view to reducing the expenses of collecting customs, by discharging all useless officers holding sinecure positions.

The cattle plague has made its appearance in Rensselaer county, New York, and several cows have fallen victims to the malady. The disease resembles erysipelas, the attacked part swelling up, sometimes under the breast, at other times on the side of the throat, the victim dying in from twenty four to forty-eight hours, in great agony.

AFFAIRS IN TENNESSEE.—A very sad case was reported to us yesterday, to which we deem it our duty to call public attention. In September, 1862 James M. Layne, a merchant of Rutherford county, was robbed of $4,000, his store rifled of goods and himself arrested by a party of rebels. His crime was keeping a Union flag. He tried to escape to the city for protection. The rebels followed him, got ahead of him on the road, seized and murdered him in cold blood. The outrage was wholly unprovoked, in the first instance, and assumed an aspect more atrocious for the reason that murder was committed on an unarmed citizen, flying for his life, after being robbed of his all. The murderers were Captain Moses Swim and his band living near Chapel Hill and Riggs' Cross Roads, Marshall county. The names of over twenty of the gang have been reported to Governor Brownlow as follows: James Purguson Lieutenant James Quinn, Bird Reynolds, Tom Bratton, Frank Roulett, Aus Harman, Van Wells, Ereckiel Wall, James Lum, Thomas Crane, H. Slantor, Jack Baily, James Riley, Geo Wallace, Jeff Phoeris, William Hooker, James Travers.

The widow of Lane has applied to Governor Brownlow for relief. She is threatened with direful vengeance if she dares to bring suit for damages, and is discouraged from attempting to get redress by ordinary process of law. What is to be done in such cases? Citizens say that they dare not sit on juries in these trials and bring a verdict against defendants, for if they do, they will be murdered or have their houses burned. And yet who is so deserving of help from the Government as the widows of Tennessee loyalists who were murdered, and whose goods were all taken away by rebels?

The desperado Harper sent word the other day to the sheriff of Sumner that if he put his foot out of Gallatin he would hang him to the first tree. Some remedies should be devised to remedy this resistance to and nullification of the civil law. It is idle for citizens to hold meetings and complain of military interference with civil law when right in their midst desperadoes set all civil law at defiance, and no one dares molest or prosecute them.—Nashville Press and Times

[illegible] PAPER OF THE STATE

SATURDAY MORNING OCTOBER 21 1865

The Confederate Cotton Loan John Bull a Loser

By reason of the machination of [illegible] rebellious countrymen and [illegible] of the [illegible] which they furnished the Confederate [illegible] certain English [illegible] who [illegible] is in inverse ratio to the amount [illegible] could once command [illegible] of the funds which they staked in the success of the American rebellion But it appears that there aristocrats whose amiable purpose it was to destroy the Government of the United States have not yet wholly given up the idea of recovering the money which they spent to accomplish the much desired end And with an impudence which can be exceeded by nothing except the obtuseness of those who are so stupid as to make such a demand, they gravely ask our Government as a matter of right to refund them the large sums they expended in the effort to destroy us The matter has been made the subject of a special correspondence between Mr Seward and Mr Adams our Minister to England Mr Adams is instructed to use all the means in his power to disabuse the holders of the rebel loan of the idea that the United States will ever pay these demands Thus our "English friends" are left to pocket their loss with what complacency they can They warmly admired and loudly applauded the acts of our rebellious countrymen, in the name and for the sake of past friendships, why shouldn't they now bear their losses without murmuring?

The London Times was one of our most malignant, and probably one of our most hurtful enemies during the war The publication of the names of some of the persons who were interested in the rebel cotton loan, at once shows us the reason of its late hostility The Times had a pecuniary interest in the Confederacy to the amount of near three hundred thousand dollars. Here we find a solution of the mysteries of the course it has pursued. That brilliant, unprejudiced and very disinterested correspondent "W H Russell, Barrister at Law," put the United States to an imaginary death in 1861 in order that the oracle of the English press might get its pay for the thunderbolts used in the service of the Confederacy Mackay his successor, for a similar reason, did likewise These Vulcans were forging thunderbolts for the modern Jove, and the modern Jove, as venal as the ancient Mercury, used them for the benefit of those who offered ready pay The Times, great leader of European sentiment—rerum [illegible]—had its selling price, and was bought into the service of the great rebellion.

For precisely the same reason that it once maligned the great Republic, the Times is now speaking of us in the most laudatory terms All its words are those of praise. It is proving itself an adept in the arts of flattery and blandishment What now? Why this so sudden change? The Times wants the money it expected to get from its protege, the Confederacy and now it hopes to flatter us to such an extent as to induce us, ungrudgingly to pay it. With such bait as this it might be easy to catch gudgeons, and perhaps even Johnny Bull might swallow it if, under the like circumstances, it were thrown to him, but blarney or "soft sawder," as Sam Slick would say, is entirely lost when a Yankee is the intended victim

It is very gratifying to our people to witness the distress of the aristocrats who with their influence and money tried to break us down. Could we know that they were reduced to absolute beggary our gratification would be complete So ought it to be with all persons who give money to support the infamous [illegible] of human bondage.

Is it Safe?—The reconstruction plan of President Johnson seems to have worked, so far, with tolerable smoothness, but from the course the President is taking, and from his frequent asseverations to that effect, it is evident that he regards his present efforts merely as experiments If we are to have any further difficulty, some little time will elapse before the opposition will spring up and assume a definite shape. The South will of course be aided by kindred spirits in the North, and a factious hostility to the Government may possibly be succeeded in time by still greater troubles We do not regard the country as entirely safe even yet The restoration of so many [illegible] and unrepentant rebels to the full rights of citizens, bodes no good, we fear, to the country. It is evident that the President has little confidence in most of the leaders to whom he has granted special pardons. The Southern States are being gradually given into the keeping of their own militia, most of whom are veteran rebel soldiers, and if they choose to remain loyal they will do so; if not, they have it in their power to do otherwise. We are not yet without serious misgivings in regard to the whole matter, but can only earnestly hope that the President's "experiment" may be a successful one.

The Paper for the State Printing—The following letter from the Messrs. Tilton, of New York, under date of Sept. 15th, to the house of Ladd & Tilton here, affords us our latest information about the paper which was ordered from the East to complete the State Printing. From the drift of the letter, we infer that the paper was sent so that it will reach here in from one to three weeks from this time

> We have given attention to yours of July 27th advising us of telegram to ship by first steamer 120 reams of paper We have ordered the paper requesting them to give us part, if not the whole, to ship by the 16th inst but as they are so driven we fear we shall not be able to get it off There is not a pound of this make in market, and we had to order it direct from the mill We are using our utmost endeavors to send it along as soon as possible. The Salem copperhead journals are still at peace, but it is bruited about that there will soon be a falling out between them We think it a pity there should be, since in several points they so nearly agree

The Statesman of Salem assumes, in articles of elaborate acuteness, to speak for the Union party We never yet knew a stupid dolt but who was vain of his second-hand opinions and forward in giving his shallow advice

The recent action of the Government in releasing Stephens, Campbell and other rebels on parole is preparatory, we presume to an ultimate pardon

Insanity of a Mob—The New York Evening Post of September 19th relates the following

Yesterday afternoon, J Williams a Spanish sailor, residing in New York came over to Brooklyn accompanied by three children of one of his neighbors, whom he had taken out to give them a ride on the cars While he was going up Main street a number of Irish women followed him, crying out, "See the nagur kidnapping the white childer" and in a short time a considerable crowd was collected, who beat and stoned Williams, compelling him to run for his life They took the children from him Information was sent to the police of the Forty second Precinct and a detachment was sent, who rescued the children from the rioters and restored them to Williams' custody and he went back to New York with them

The leading theme for discussion on change is the decline in mining stock Primarily the marked depreciation in this class of securities is said to have been induced by the withdrawal of large sums of money which have been placed upon hypothecated stocks, but want of confidence in the management of the joint stock companies possibly has something to do with it Yellow Jacket sold down to $795 Savage $950 Belcher $400 Sellers at thirty days There was a slight improvement at the board

Rebel Debt in England.

The attitude of the United States Government on the subject of assuming the rebel war debt is plainly set forth in the following official letters from Secretary Seward to Minister Adams

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON March 13 1865

Charles Francis Adams—Sir An impression is understood to prevail in Europe, especially among the holders of the insurgent loan for which cotton was pledged as security, that in the event of the restoration of peace in this country, this Government will assume the public debts of the insurgents, or certainly the particular debt referred to It is believed, however, that no impression could be more erroneous There is no likelihood that any part of that debt will be assumed or recognized by the United States Government It is proper and advisable, therefore that by any proper means at your command, you should authoritatively undeceive the public in England on this point I am, your obedient servant
WILLIAM H SEWARD.

SEWARD TO ADAMS

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, August 10 1865

Charles Francis Adams—Sir I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your dispatch No 1,022 together with papers, which contain an interlocutory decree which has been made by the Vice Chancellor in the suit of the United States against Prioleau and others which suit was instituted for the recovery of one thousand three hundred and fifty six bales of cotton. A copy of the Vice Chancellor's reasons for the interlocutory is found among the same papers The Vice Chancellor is understood to have affirmed the title of the United States to the property in question It is with the judgment of the Vice Chancellor and not with the reasons he assigns for such judgment that the United States are concerned In this view of the subject it might seem proper for this Government to have its [illegible] The frankness however which ought to be practised in the proceedings of States requires an explanation of the views which the Government has taken of the question which the Vice Chancellor has discussed in his reasons before mentioned The United States do not admit that the combination of disloyal citizens which have raised the standard of insurrection is a war or has at any previous time been a Government de facto or in any sense a political power, capable of taking [illegible] giving, asserting, or maintaining corporate rights in any form whether municipal or international It is true that a different view of the character of the insurgents has seemed to find favor with some portions of the British nation and even with the British Government It must be remembered however that as often as that antagonistic principle has been advanced by Her Britannic Majesty's Government in its intercourse with the United States, it has been as firmly, though as we trust as courteously denied The United States controvert and deny the declaration of the Vice Chancellor that by any success of the rebellion and [illegible] they maintain that they are now and during all the time of the rebellion there have been just what they were before the rebellion began—a sovereign State absolutely entitled to the rule, regulation and control of all the property and persons within the United States subject only to the limitations of their own Constitution It need hardly be said that the United States will hold themselves under no obligation whatever to accept of [illegible] them [illegible] proceedings to the conditions which the Court of Chancery or any other municipal Court of Great Britain may have the presumption to dictate in prescribing the present or any other litigation They [illegible] and insisting on the restoration of the [illegible] to the [illegible] and while they are content to receive it through the decree of the municipal tribunals of Great Britain they insist upon their absolute right to [illegible] same through the action of Her Britannic Majesty's Government [illegible] instructed to maintain who according to [illegible] the United States [illegible] the views herein expressed. Her Majesty's Government [illegible] for the [illegible] therefore it would be only necessary [illegible] of the subjects herein discussed [illegible] the attention of Earl Russell It however [illegible] that Her Majesty's Ministers entertaining [illegible] any misapprehension of the views of this Government which should [illegible] it will supply such corrections in [illegible] frankly and courteous manner.

DEPARTURE.—Dr. J. C. Hawthorne leaves by the Oriflamme for New York. He has lately [illegible] tour to the region of Owyhee and [illegible] Basin, and is taking [illegible] interests in many of the [illegible] of those sections. Yesterday [illegible] rock of numerous [illegible] the wealth of the country. [illegible] which the owners [illegible] that there is a demand [illegible] aid in developing our mineral resources [illegible] to yield gratifying results. The [illegible] by Dr. Hawthorne are very rich. [illegible] from him a partial description [illegible] he visited and some of the ledges [illegible] valuable to us than anything we have [illegible] The Poor Man lode, of which [illegible] is situated on War Eagle Mountain [illegible] wide. The Vaca lode is near the [illegible] 30 inches wide. The [illegible] is very [illegible] to be one of the most valuable [illegible] The Trask & Jennings [illegible] and is a valuable lode. The [illegible] forty feet deep. The Morning Star is [illegible] the shaft is 120 feet long [illegible] and gold, and the ledge is about 2½ feet [illegible] is a very fine lode, and a great deal [illegible] taken from it. Its width is fully four [illegible] In Flint District, eight miles from [illegible] many fine, large and rich lodes. The [illegible] the best, and is ten feet wide. The [illegible] three to five feet wide. All the lodes [illegible] The assays from these run from $300 [illegible] Silver Hill District, thirty miles north [illegible] City, contains many good lodes, amongst [illegible] and upwards to the [illegible] Middle [illegible] miles northeast from Rocky Bar, [illegible] large and rich lodes. The principal ones [illegible] 50 feet wide, traced for 600 feet; the [illegible] 17 feet wide; the [illegible] six feet wide, the Eclipse, five feet wide; [illegible] four feet wide, besides many other good [illegible] contain both gold and silver ore. [illegible] The Idaho lode is being [illegible] good returns. This lode has been [illegible] per foot and is well worth double [illegible]

[illegible] a number of lodes, many of which [illegible] those now being worked, [illegible] at which is located the Combs & Co. [illegible] from five to six feet wide, and yields [illegible] is mostly gold-bearing. [illegible] mills in the Territory, and most or [illegible] will be in working order by spring. They [illegible] 400 stamps in all. The mills are about [illegible] between the Boise Basin, South Boise and [illegible] many other lodes are rich in mineral, but [illegible] them special notice at this time.

[illegible] is pretty loud talk around the city [illegible] violence of a certain class of vagabonds [illegible] in the streets of Portland, prowling [illegible] and making night hideous, and the [illegible] upon to do their utmost in the matter [illegible] justice any person whom they may find [illegible] the city after certain hours at night, or [illegible] the day time, who [illegible] can give a good [illegible] Several instances have been [illegible] worthy of mentioning, and it is [illegible] Courts of the city that when [illegible] shape, apply for writs of arrest [illegible] that they be made to give security [illegible] is issued. Not long since a [illegible] attempted to enter the private residence of [illegible] ward, when citizen found it absolutely [illegible] for his presuming and [illegible] then spent a day with an officer [illegible] when in fact officer should have done [illegible] and the costs. Again the same [illegible] was ejected from another respectable [illegible] the manner of ejecting him was held [illegible] dollars for his appearance. It is [illegible] a violation of law, to kick a brute [illegible] has maliciously trespassed upon [illegible] of your house, provided you have used [illegible] the first, and people so regard it. We [illegible] these a suspicious gang of half made [illegible] and thieves, who will hear watch [illegible] at the hurdy gurdy houses and [illegible] of the city at all hours of the night [illegible] until towards morning for their [illegible] It is a curse to the city. The [illegible] tells us they cannot stop the evil [illegible] the dignity of a barbarous being [illegible] and children must suffer the consequences.

[illegible]—The following is the report [illegible] Multnomah county, for the [illegible] 28, 1865:

[illegible] S. S. Frambes, Principal, Mrs. [illegible] Number of pupils enrolled [illegible] 50; number of females 65. Average [illegible]

[illegible] Miss E. J. Way, Principal; [illegible] Number of pupils enrolled [illegible] 65; number of females 60 [illegible]

[illegible] Miss A. E. Way, Principal; [illegible] Number of pupils enrolled [illegible] 96; number of females 83 [illegible]

Whole number of pupils enrolled, 483; [illegible] pupils, 347.

[illegible]—To-day we have a programme [illegible] the Multnomah course. At eleven [illegible] will be [illegible] team trotting, for which [illegible] W. S. Wells names b. g. Sherman; [illegible] Turpin names [illegible] Sally; D. B. Acker names b. m. Fashion. [illegible] P. M., a match race single dash [illegible] and Humboldt. At 2 P. M. [illegible]—We last evening called in at Mrs. [illegible] establishment on Front street, and [illegible] with the display of nice things shown [illegible] in cases, and on shelves for sale. Now [illegible] to wait, the presumption must be that [illegible] buyers call they must be delighted or in [illegible] Mrs. M. has truly a fine [illegible] goods, and we wish to direct the attention [illegible] To-day large additions will be [illegible] goods direct from New York city, of the [illegible] her advertisement.

[illegible] One of our prominent merchants while in [illegible] made a small investment in oil stock [illegible] that it would result in a better [illegible] in which he was engaged at home [illegible] he received intelligence that the [illegible] had struck it rich, and in case the [illegible] as reported, his stock will [illegible] in excess of the gross profits of his business on Front street.

[illegible] buying of pools is now the favorite way of [illegible] in California and the East. The first [illegible] sold for what is offered, the second choice [illegible] in like manner until each [illegible] is taken [illegible] At the conclusion the taker of the [illegible] the entire pool, less commission. The [illegible] is that it gives all the same chance with [illegible] on the horses that are to go.

[illegible] In the list of premiums as published last [illegible] Dufur calls our attention to an error. It [illegible] that he took the second premium on [illegible] one year old, also [illegible] the best five [illegible] butter. Mr. Dufur was awarded the first premium [illegible] these articles and it is with pleasure that [illegible]

THE DISCONSOLATE ANGLO-REBEL BONDHOLDERS.—The melancholy meeting of the Englishmen who were victimized by the rebel cotton bonds is thus ridiculed by the London Daily News:

[illegible] who had applied [illegible] to throw off the [illegible] authority [illegible] with no such expectation [illegible] the rebel [illegible] Englishmen.

THE REBEL CHIEFS AND THE ANDERSONVILLE TORTURERS.—A large number of witnesses having testified to the brutality and inhumanity of Wirtz towards the unhappy prisoners under his charge, and shown him to have been a most cruel and blood thirsty monster, the Government yesterday introduced testimony which shows that the character of Wirtz and the dreadful condition of the men under his charge were known to the rebel chiefs at Richmond.

General Howell Cobb made an official report on the 5th of May, 1864, in which he urged that no more prisoners should be sent to Andersonville, as the place was already overcrowded. Yet after that thousands of unhappy men were sent thither by orders from Richmond.

Dr. Eldridge reported officially just a year later that the prison was too much crowded, and described the sufferings of the men. Wirtz wrote on the 8th of May, 1864, asking for promotion and calling attention to the fact that he had lost but six prisoners by escape.

Inspector General Chandler in an official report dated July 5, 1864, to the War Department at Richmond, gave a shocking account of the condition of the Andersonville pen, and the men confined in it. No shelter, no medical supplies were issued within the stockade, and there were no materials for constructing shelter, a large space near the creek within the prison, in such a state as to breed a pestilence, no anti-scorbutics, though green corn and other necessary articles he said could readily be obtained, raw rations issued, with no fuel nor utensils to cook them, no soap or clothing, many men dying who were never heard of by the medical officers until they were carted out by the wagon load, dead. Such are the items of his description. But though the rebel chiefs at Richmond were thus officially made aware of the inhumanities needlessly practiced by their officers upon our men, they made no change.

We have been told that Alexander Stephens on two occasions, made an appeal directly to Jefferson Davis for leave to examine the Andersonville prison, and authority to remedy abuses that be represented to Davis the wrongs and cruelties committed there, but received for a reply that the officers in command were capable and trustworthy men and should not be interfered with—for which reason Mr. Stephens' requests were denied.—N. Y. Post, Sept. 9.

SECRETARY SEWARD'S FACE.—Mr. Seward took off the complicated and inconvenient apparatus of steel and gutta which was used to hold together his fractured jaw bone, and now wears a simple India-rubber bandage on the outside of the face only. The gland in his cheek which was severed by Payne's knife has not yet wholly recovered, and there is still much inflammation about the wound. A great scar on the right side of his face still shows the desperate nature of the cut received from that assassin. It looks as if the entire cheek had been amputated and fitted on again. The mouth is also much distorted, as a result of the wounds, the right corner of it being raised an inch above its proper line. No former acquaintance would recognize the venerable statesman, so much is his countenance changed by the dreadful injuries.

Miss Augusta St. Clair, "a petite young lady, scarcely twenty," has been lecturing on Marriage and Female Education, in Cleveland. The Plain Dealer says the lecture was "all very fine in theory, but sadly deficient in practice." "When you come to be married, Sammy," said the elder Mr. Weller, "you'll know a good many things as you don't know now."

NOTABLE DEATH.—Major General Sir George Brown, one of the English heroes of the Crimean war, died recently. He was born 1790, entered the army 1806, was wounded at Talavera, was present in America at the battle of Bladensburg and the capture of Washington, and at the time of his death was commander in Ireland.

General Heintzleman is enjoying the first leave of absence he has taken since the beginning of the war and visiting his home in Pennsylvania, which he has not seen for twenty-five years. His present rank is that of Colonel in the regular army.

REMINDER.—The bane of the world is procrastination. How mournfully is this verified in the frightful and needless loss of life from Consumption, which could certainly have been cured, and thousands of valuable lives saved to bless the world, by a timely use of NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP, which is known to be the most effectual remedy ever offered to the public for all affections of the lungs. Try it and be convinced.

THE ONLY REMEDY.—Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offence that can be speedily abated as a single bottle of the Fragrant SOZODONT will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white and the breath pure and sweet.

MALLORY.—The Richmond Republic, which recently perpetrated the anti-obituary of Judah P Benjamin now very neatly performs the same office for Mr Mallory, late Secretary of what there was of the rebel navy. The Republic describes him as an amiable gentleman, a sort of handsome figure head for a man of war but nothing else.

Mallory had a specialty however which kept the public from utterly discrediting his existence. It was a strange passion for [illegible] and then after [illegible] fixing them for a while and [illegible] offering them up as burnt offerings. He was always building and always burning rams. He would have made an admiral to Secretary of the Navy in the Island or in a principality that lived the speaks of whose military force consisted of one Colonel six officers and twenty privates. He might have held the same position with a brilliant in Prussia down to the acquisition of her single seaport of Kiel. He might even have answered [illegible] admiralty to England at a time when it was the custom to order a midshipman to report for duty to a ship that was on the stocks and which was so long in building that the youngster generally became an old man with a dozen children before he was ready for sea. For a dock department or any other department of a slow dust character he would have been the right man in the right place. In the position that he actually held, he entitled himself to a pension from the United States. It would be entirely useless, however, for the Government to release him if they expect him to take the trouble to walk out of prison. It is impossible to dislodge him from any place except by his own favorite process with Confederate rams—of blowing him up. Nothing but the explosion that sent up the Confederacy could induce him to travel from this location.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, October 30th 1865

The same buoyancy which has characterized the markets for the past five weeks continues in every department of trade and commerce making the fall season very profitable for legitimate transactions. The sales reported show no decrease, but there is an evident stiffening in staple articles and especially in woolen and cotton goods.

We are informed by late advices from the East, that the demand and wants for goods of all descriptions in New York, for the Southern trade, is wholly in excess of the supply and the consequent advancement in prices is likely to continue for some time. One of the leading Portland merchants now in the East states in letters to the business manager here that there is such a pressing demand and tendency to advances that outstanding orders cannot be immediately filled.

The Orizaba arrived on the 19th with a very full cargo of assorted merchandise. She reached the wharf by lightening about two hundred tons but we understand no charges are added, as one cause of her detention was from the fact that she was not directly in the channel upon grounding. She will leave to-day for San Francisco taking a light cargo of fruit.

Our latest dates from Montana contain some information of importance in relation to supplies. The arrival of wagons from Milk River, 250 miles below Fort Benton, where a large portion of the goods from St Louis, for Montana, were stored for safety against the Indians, fixt up several hundreds. The cargoes have been distributed to the various mining camps. A large amount of flour from Salt Lake has arrived. Some assorted goods from California have been brought overland.

Coffee, teas and tobacco are scarce, and there is a probability of a limited stock of each for Winter.

We append the Virginia City quotations for the 30th of September, remarking that they are wholesale prices and that 20 per cent additional is about a fair average for the mining districts; also, that they are gold dust prices, at $18 an ounce, and that there is 10 per cent off for coin.

The money market presents no new features, there is still a demand for money for good temporary investments. Real estate is changing very readily, giving a good tone to the [illegible] condition of matters. [illegible] In this city We have to note some heavy transactions for the period under review, involving several thousand dollars. Sales of twelve lots, or one block and four continuous levee lots, are given at $40,000, which in 1850 were purchased at about $1,740. Sale of one levee corner lot, in the business center of the city, is noted at $18,000.

Gold is quoted in New York at 140, at latest advices—giving legal tender notes a value of 69½. No sales of currency are reported, prices remain at 71½.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

Domestic Produce Market.

PORTLAND, October 29th, 1865

The market is better supplied, and more produce is coming forward, than for last week. Bacon and lard continue high, and there is an active inquiry, a small quantity of new Oregon lard is reported in the market held at 28 to 30 cts per ℔. There is a demand for all kinds of produce.

The W B Scranton brought 100 tons of [illegible] barley and we understand the Almedia will bring 100 tons of the same quality of grain, purchased in the San Francisco market.

Dried apples bring 7@8cts; we hear of no dried peaches offering. The market rules about the same as for the week previous to our last report in apples.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle
